

Charlene Concepción Nijmeh

Candidate for Congress

One of us to fight for us.

Charlene Concepción Nijmeh

It's time to put People before Politics.

Housing activist.
Environmentalist.
Businesswoman.
Tribal Chairwoman.
New Urbanist.
Pro-Mass Transit.
Incredible public spaces.
Better schools.
Safe streets.
Recycling innovator.
Pro-labor.
Anti-war.

Fifteen years ago, Charlene founded a recycling company that diverts more than 60 million pounds of textiles from landfills each year, while creating a source of affordable clothing in Latin America. Charlene and her partners have built a chain of 123 reuse stores and created 6,000 jobs.

ELECTION DAY – MARCH 5

PAID FOR BY CHARLENE FOR CONGRESS 2024

Charlene Nijmeh is on a mission to reduce housing costs. She will rewrite federal housing policies to put homeownership within reach for everyone.

Charlene Nijmeh supports educational programs that teach children the importance of recycling. Her backpack giveaways have provided school supplies to thousands of children.

Charlene Nijmeh is the chairwoman of the Muwekma Ohlone Tribe. Over the past five years, she has reinvigorated her tribe's fight to affirm its federal status.